

WHAT OUR PARTNER VOCATION DIRECTORS RECEIVE:

Let us walk with you, whether you are a new director or a seasoned veteran, to
CULTIVATE A FRUITFUL HARVEST FOR YOUR DIOCESE.

Over the last nine years, working with over 100 vocation directors, we have refined this model of success.

ASSESS

- Discuss and advise on the existing vocation activities
- Analyze vocation information to provide strong estimates of future data *

*DATA

- Total priests active in 5, 10, 15 years
- Priest retirement effects on number of parishioners served by each active priest
- Seminarian class size required to meet diocesan goals
- Effects of diocesan discern out rate on number of seminarians needed
- Ordinations required to meet diocesan goals
- Five situational cases based on access to extern priests, religious order priests, lowering discern out rate

PLAN

- Engage and ignite priests, laity, and educators through our signature workshops
- Quarterly virtual sessions with Diocesan Vocations Office team
- Consult and advise on an individualized diocesan 3-step plan for vocations
- Gain free access to a variety of marketing promotional resources for diocesan events and workshops

STRATEGIZE

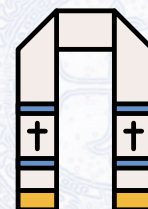

- Share proven strategies to identify collaborators within the diocese
 - Parishes, priests, parishioners, schools, principals, youth ministers, and campus ministers
- Consult and advise on creation of Vocations Office funnel for discerners

CAPITALIZE

- Equip with tools, resources, and timing to productively run Called by Name, St. Andrew Dinners, and Miriam Dinners to fill the funnel
- Offer optional virtual check-ins with workshop attendees and parish vocation ministry members

Our workshops significantly increased the number of parish vocation ministries in the Diocese of Venice, Florida, growing from 2 to 30 within a few months.

After our workshops, the Diocese of Austin, Texas doubled their seminarian numbers from 28 in 2022 to 60 in 2024.