1. On this World Day of Cloistered Life, may we remember the prayers that rise like incense from the hearts of those who live for God alone. Their hidden devotion blesses us all.
#NationalVocationAwarenessWeek. How is God calling you?"
2. On this World Day of Cloistered Life, we give thanks for those whose lives are dedicated to prayer behind monastery walls. Their prayers sustain the Church, and their witness inspires us all. Let us support and remember them, as they lift us all to God.
3. Join us on November 21st, the World Day of Cloistered Life, as we lift up in prayer those who have dedicated their lives to solitude and devotion. Let us remember and honor the hidden lives of cloistered religious who, like Mary, respond to God's call with love and surrender.
4. November 21st is the World Day of Cloistered Life—a day to recognize the profound beauty of lives lived in silent prayer and dedication. On this feast of the Presentation of Mary, let us keep our cloistered brothers and sisters in our hearts and prayers.
5. On this World Day of Cloistered Life, may we remember the prayers that rise like incense from the hearts of those who live for God alone. Their hidden devotion blesses us all.
6. On this World Day of Cloistered Life, we honor those who serve the Lord in silent devotion. May we find peace in the quiet sanctuaries of our hearts, joining our prayers with those who embrace a life of stillness and grace.
